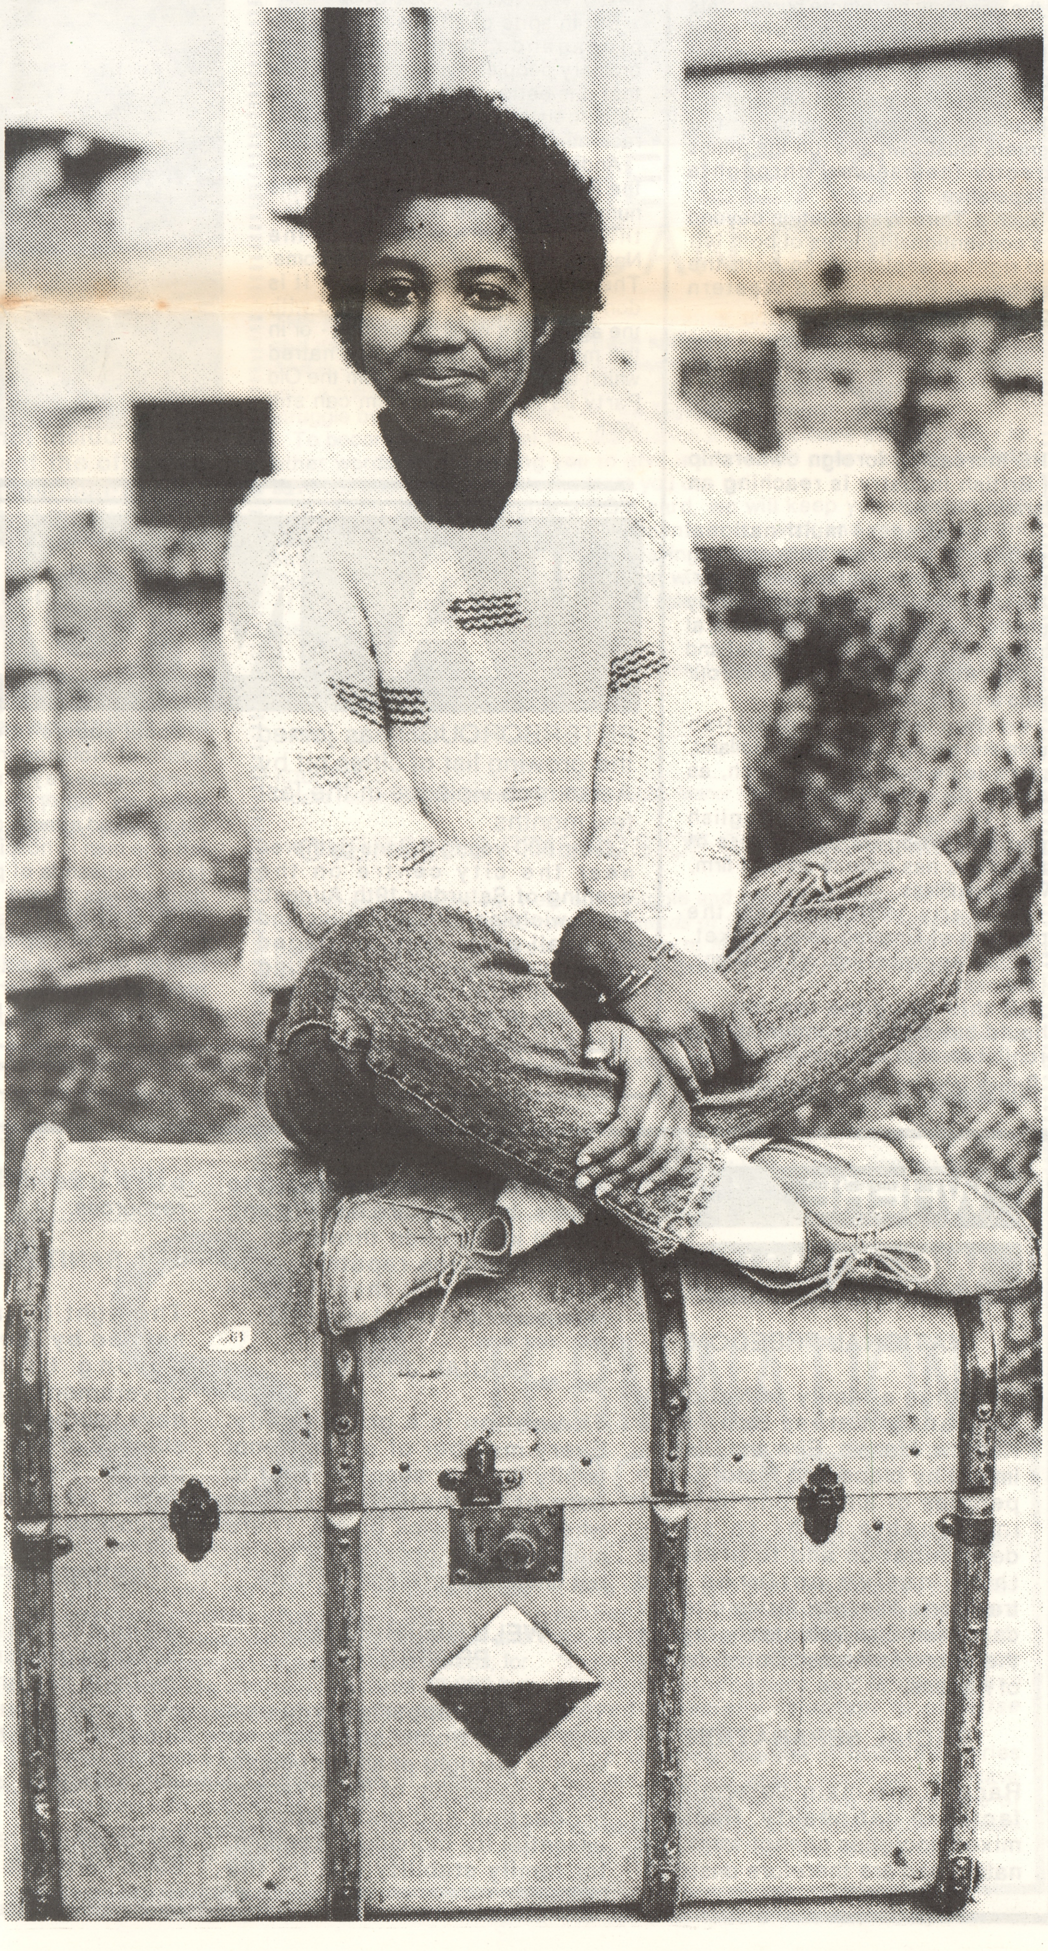
BLACKS BACK REPATRIATION!

OVER TWO THIRDS SAY YES!



MORE THAN TWO OUT OF THREE AFRO-CARIBBEANS LIVING IN BRITAIN WANT TO SEE A FINANCIALLY-ASSISTED PROGRAMME OF REPATRIATION.

And the figure among Black women is even higher, with 73% -virtually three quarters- wanting the chance for their families to leave Britain's failed multi-racial experiment.

Asians too are dissatisfied with living in a country with values and traditions which so often threaten their own culture. Well over half of them -54%- want the opportunity to go home. And nearly two thirds of White people would be happy to see them given tax-payers' money to encourage them to go.

Just as significant is the extremely low number of people of all races who are opposed to the idea of repatriation. Only 13% of Blacks, 19% of Asians and 22% of Whites believe that immigrants should stay here. And it is likely that some of the Whites are in fact merely opposed to giving financial assistance, rather than repatriation.

This heartening evidence of strong cross-community support for racial separation through repatriation came in a poll of 1,534 people by ICM Research. 520 were White, 456 Black and 558 Asians.

HOME AFFAIRS, ANALYSIS & COMMENT

AS the last pit in Kent is about to be closed down at Betteshanger, local N.U.M. members have called for the colliery to be handed over to the workers and run directly as a co-operative.

Despite British Coal's plans to end a hundred years of mining in this corner of England, Kent miners claim that the pit can still be worked successfully and have offered to prove it if chairman Sir Robert Haslem will let them. As is all too common in the industry, British Coal are blaming the work-force themselves for the closure, yet the N.U.M. offer proves that the miners want to make the colliery stay in business.

If the Betteshanger pit is turned into a genuine co-operative then it will remain free from the power of both idle shareholders and state officials, a Third Way beyond capitalism and communism will have been realised.

THE recent industrial unrest in the Soviet mining industry has lessons for us here in the West.

15,000 miners in 40 Siberian pits are striking for higher wages and increased local autonomy. Over 70 years of State-Socialism has caused, not cured, economic problems in the U.S.S.R. Clearly communism is both inefficient and inhuman, a betrayal of working people.

It is easy to guess what Mrs. Thatcher's answer would be: privatise the mines! But would ownership by shareholders really be an improvement?

The answer is: no! The government of the economy by remote bureaucrats would be replaced simply by a different form of exploitation. Capital would hire labour, yet the only solution is to reverse this situation, and for labour to hire capital. In short: the workers must own and run the mines directly themselves, through a co-operative.

Such a Third Way solution beyond the conventional failures of both left and right is applicable to both the nations of Eastern and Western Europe.

THE increasing foreign ownership of British industry is reaching an alarming level.

- The Japanese multi-national Honda is to acquire a 20% stake in the British car manufacturer Rover. The U.K. is already dominated by outside companies such as General Motors, Ford, Peugot-Talbot, Daf and Nissan. Almost half the cars on our roads are imports.
- The established British gunmakers firm, Holland and Holland, is now to be sold to the French, as was H.P. Sauce last year.
- The world famous English company Wedgewood, makers of table china, has gone to an Irish firm, Waterford Glass.
- Early 1989 also saw the sponsors of English Test cricket, Cornhill Assurance, sold off to Allianz, of Germany.

All this has gone too far: we should buy back our industry and prohibit foreign ownership by law.

British jobs for British workers.

Two out of three blacks and over half of Asians agree with repatriation plans

THE MESSAGE IS CLEAR: "LET US GO HOME!"

THE Daily Express Survey poll, featured on our front page, asked various other questions on racial matters. A majority of Whites recognised that Afro-Caribbeans are prejudiced against them. While 58% regard Asians as hostile to the people of this country. And over two thirds of Asians agree with this.

The poll was based on written questionaires so the chances of interviewees being too intimidated by the constant multi-racist pressure from the media was kept to a minimum. Even so, on the ultra-sensitive issue of racially-mixed marriage, the question itself was heavily loaded to encourage a favourable response. The question: "are there any types of people that you would not want to marry, or would not want your son or daughter to marry?"

The possible answers were a list of different ethnic groups, anyone not from your own racial group, and the statement that it doesn't matter as long "as long as they love each other."

The use of such an emotive phrase would obviously reduce the number of people speaking out against race-mixing. But in spite of this, a very substantual 42% of Whites, and an even higher 47% of Asians, were prepared to say that they opposed inter-racial marriage.

We have all had race-mixing forced down our throats for thirty years. You cannot read a newspaper, look at a child's story book, glance at a row of advertising hoardings or turn on the T.V. without being reminded that we are all supposed to be multi-racial now. The aim is to make all of us - White, Black and Asian alike - forget our identities, lose our pride in our traditions and become a rootless mass of unthinking consumers of a profitable global junk culture. If you doubt this, just look carefully at the next T.V. advert for Coca-Cola!

But in spite of all this race-hating propaganda, huge numbers of ordinary people of all races still know that it is better to live, love and work with their own kind. They see that race-mixing is race-murder.

And all the signs are that things like the Rushdie Affair are increasing the numbers of people who believe this - the people who agree with the National Front. Repatriation will come. The only question is whether it is done our way - peacefully and with the agreement of all concerned - or in the midst of the violence and hatred which are bound to result from the Old Party lie that multi-racism can still work.

"A MODEL CITY"

PETERBOROUGH has joined the growing list of cities hit by Asian mob violence in the last few months.

Over 600 young Asians gathered near the city centre on the evening of Saturday 19th August. Then wielding sticks, knives and baseball bats, they rampaged through the streets, assualting innocent White bystanders and smashing shop windows.

Local papers refered to the five hours of violence in the Westgate, Long Causeway and Lincoln Road areas as "an orgy of destruction". Unprovoked attacks on local residents left one man in hospital with a broken jaw. Thousands of pounds worth of damage was caused.

The police blamed "rumour mongers" who spent the afternoon telling young Asians that a small group of extreme right wing leafletters from London and Leicester were planning to attack a local mosque and burn the Koran. A few days later, Zahid Hussain, Peterborough's "equal opportunities" officer, and his deputy, Cammie Simmons, were suspended after a meeting of the council committee for community relations.

On the night of the troubles, terrified senior police officers set up plain-clothed "stake-outs" at nearby petrol stations, to prevent rioters buying materials for petrol bombs. Reinforcements from a wide area managed to contain the trouble, which died out at about 2.30 the following morning.

Peterborough's local multi-racist Establishment council leaders, bureaucrats and police chiefs have always boasted of having built up "unusually good community relations"

This has left worried residents wondering what mayhem bad community relations would produce.

WHERE WE STAND

NATIONAL FREEDOM

Britain is a family of Nations - England, Wales, Scotland, Kernow, Mannin, Eire and Ulster - linked by blood and history. The peoples of all nations have an inalienable right to self-determination and to preserve their native cultures and traditions. We look forward to the day when Eire voluntarily rejoins the future federated British family of nations.

RACIAL SEPARATION

Race is the main determining factor in nationality. Racially mixed societies cannot form one nation and are therefore unstable. No one race is 'superior' to others, but they are all different. Racial integration threatens all races. Humane repatriation is better for us all than endless repression and racial violence.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

The nation is a great family. Every member of our national family has the absolute right to care at the nation's expense when young, sick or old. There must be equal opportunity for all, but unearned privilege for none.

WELL DISTRIBUTED PROPERTY

The realistic opportunity to own one's own home and place of work is the right of all our people. Direct ownership of the means of production and distribution is essential for individual freedom, for family stability and for the best use of our national resources.

SANITY IN FINANCE

The right to create the credit needed by the economy must belong to the people's government. The banks, which have usurped this right, must be stripped of their unjust gains and power. The National Debt is based on usury and must be repudiated.

RESPECT FOR NATURE

We hold the environment in trust for future generations. Pollution of the land, sea and air, and of the gene pool through radiation, is a betrayal of that trust.

POPULAR RULE

Parliamentary representation is a fraud. Party rule is a cloak for the dictatorship of vested interests and media bosses. Government must be in the hands of the people themselves, through new information technology, and the election of delegates to carry out their wishes. Power must be devolved to the lowest possible level.

THE ARMED PEOPLE

The freedoms given by these principles must be defended through armed neutrality, with well - equiped national defence forces involving the entire adult population. Power, wealth and arms in the hands of the people!

REVOLUTION NOT REFORM

These changes cannot be brought about by tinkering within the System, or by relying on the System's own institutions, such as parliament, schools or the courts. They can only spring from a National Revolution. This revolution must begin in the hearts of individuals, then spread by their example to involve whole communities in revolutionary structures such as alternative councils and schools, neighbourhood patrols and self-help groups. Once we cease to depend on the institutions of the old State, it will be swept aside.

THE THIRD WAY

The growth of these ideas in nation after nation shows that a new force is rising in the world for the 21st century. Leaving behind the sterile hatreds of Capitalism, Nazism and Communism, this Third Way offers a real future for all our peoples. We urge all those who agree with these principles to join with us in the struggle to build the National Front - the Movement of the Future.

DEATH FACTORIES FOR NORTH EAST

THE NORTH EAST IS GOING TO BECOME A MAJOR WORLD PROCESSOR OF POLYCHLORINATED BI-PHENYLS (PCB's).

Two companies, Northumbria Water and the California based International Technology Corporation (ITC), have announced joint plans to build massive toxic waste incineration plants near Wallsend in Newcastle and at Portrack near Stockton-on-Tees.

They claim that these potential death factories will be mainly used to dispose of the North East's sewage sludge. And in an attempt to con people by playing upon their emotions they say that the new plants are essential in order to phase out sewage dumping at sea which, thanks to groups like Greenpeace, has had too much bad publicity recently.

David Corkey, chairman of North Tynesides' Planning Committee put the issue into perspective:

"...Northumbrian Water and the company [ITC] will have to bring in foreign waste in order to make the plant viable..."

After all, ITC will be out to maximise profits like any other multi- national company.

COMPLACENCY

No doubt many people were heartened by the refusal of ports such as Tilbury and Liverpool to allow a Soviet freighter carrying Canadian PCB's to berth and unload, as part of an unofficial ban on the potentially lethal shipments.

GREENPEACE
GREENPEACE

Blocking a toxic waste outfall

However, it now emerges that the North East has no room for complacency because that ship was turned away. For the Port of Tyne emerged as the ONLY British port, out of 43 approached in a survey, which said it WOULD handle PCB's.

Has a deal already been struck behind the scenes by the Port of Tyne Authority, Northumbria Water and ITC? After all, the Port of Tyne may see the chance of increased turnover and hence profits. It seems that the Port of Tyne is prepared to ride roughshod over the principled stand of others and to endanger the wellbeing of entire communities in order to make a fast buck!

One local newspaper stated: "It is understood that today's Port of Tyne statement and the plans to set up the plant are in no way linked." We can all draw our own conclusions from that...

APOCALYPSE SOON?

So that no-one can be in any doubt as to exactly what the burning of toxic waste means, the Toxic Director of Greenpeace, Paul Horsman, explained:

"Even the most advanced high-temperature incinerators produce cancer inducing toxins to some degree."

The National Front and its friends in the North East are not going to sit idly by while plans for death factories for ourselves, our children and future generations go ahead. This report is simply the beginning of our struggle to ensure a safer and healthier future for all our people in the region.

BRITISH CO-OPS ADVANCE THE WORKERS' FIGHT FOR JUSTICE!

DESPITE Mrs. Thatcher claiming credit for advancing so called 'popular capitalism' British workers and entrepreneurs are increasingly turning away from discredited standard business ventures and finding economic stability through co-operative enterprises in all kinds of areas:

- Berry's Legal Services Co-operative Limited is a community orientated concern in Bristol of legal workers and solicitors, who aim to make the legal process more 'user-friendly' for those seeking justice. It also is the first law co-op of its kind, breaking new ground.
- Another recent, yet expanding venture is First Driving School, a marketing co-op in Middlesborough.

The co-op receives a weekly franchise fee of £150 from each driving instructor and then provides a vehicle and list of prospective learners for the instructor, who is paid by the customer.

- In Cwmbach, Cymru, when their factory closed down, workers formed Cynon Valley Clothing. They were aided by the T.U.C. co-op centre in Cardiff and the local authority, after being refused a loan by a capitalist bank. Today, the dedicated workers look to the future with optimism, gaining experience and strength by the day.
- Disillusionment and alienation in a large firm owned by other people led to a manufacturing co-op being set up by three local men in Lowestoft: Anglian Rope and Rigging Ltd. Having now achieved control and restored pride, in their place of work, they are able to offer a first-rate service backed by skill and determination.

The nationalist movement fully supports such co-operatives, seeing them as the way ahead for industry as a whole; a Third Way that frees men and women from the domination of either state-bureaucrats (Socialism) or idle shareholders (Capitalism) and achieves both economic efficiency and social justice. In addition it prevents foreign ownership of British resources. And as the writer Alasdair Campbell said of the highly successful Mondragon network:

"The Basques found, in worker-ownership of their own business enterprises, a means of expressing their national aspirations".

In the coming nationalist peoples' state, owners will work and workers will own.

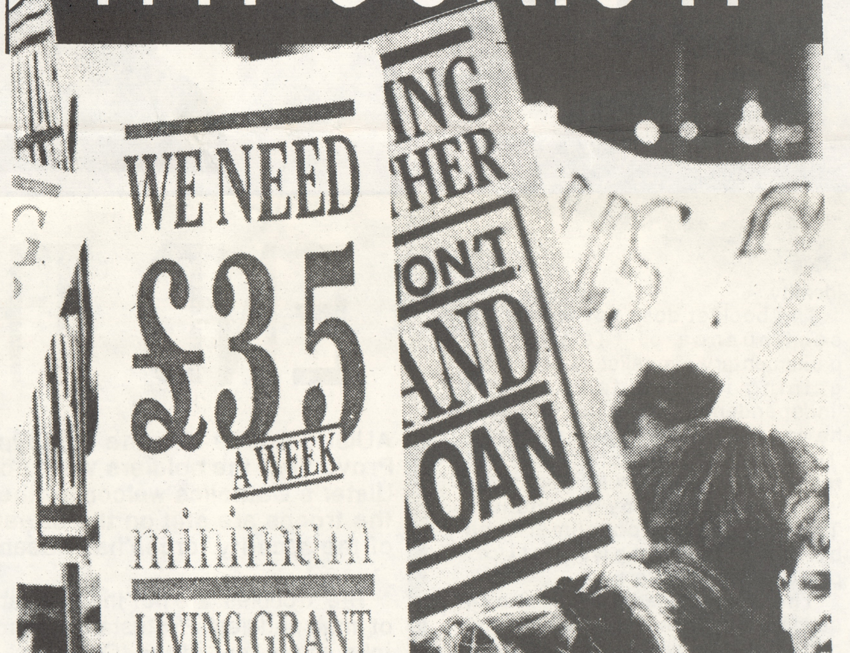
HYPOCRISY!



THE proposal by the Conservative Government to introduce top-up student loans is a sad day for British education, and also demonstrated yet again Tory hypocrisy.

The plan is for the grant and parental contribution to be frozen from the academic year 1990-1991, when a loan scheme will be introduced and increased annually until it is equal to the value of the grant and parental contribution combined. The withdrawal of all unemployment and housing benefit, together with income support will further reduce a student's low standard of living, even though rents continue to rise and rise.

The results will be very unwelcome for the nation: bright working-class youngsters will be deterred from taking up higher education because of the debt threat of loans, and mature would-be students could also be put off. Additionally, subject choice will be distorted. Medical students, with longer degree courses, will have an even greater financial burden around their necks when they go off to work in a busy N.H.S. hospital. The government says that it wants people to own their own homes, but who would want to pay off a loan from their education and cope with a mortgage?

The Conservative's feeble justification for getting young people into debt almost defies belief: it increases the resourses available to students! They claim increased numbers attending universities, polytechnics and colleges has caused a crisis in funding, with many students in debt anyway; yet an examination of the situaiton shows how this state of affairs was created by the government itself: Since 1979 the grant has been cut dramatically in real terms from £2230 for 1979-80 to only £1972 for 1987-88.

It has been said: "If you think education is expensive, try ignorance." The government's idea of student top-up loans must be scrapped and the cuts in the grant level restored. Education is worth fighting for.

IT seems that radical Welsh nationalists have taken to writing "God Bless Meibion Glyndwr" in towns throughout Cymru. However, in Merthyr Tydfil, the local Anti-Apartheid group - led by Marxist Mike Jenkins - has taken to covering the nationalist slogan with their own internationalist propaganda.

We are sure that MG will be interested to learn of Mr. Jenkins' antics!

A certain young lady has recently taken to slandering our Movement in various nutzi rags. For the amusement of our readers her little gems include such things as - Bernie Grant, Nelson Mandela, Pat Harrington, they're all the same really - We would like to remind Mandy Jones that we have in our posession certain letters from her which would prove very embarrasing to her and her nutzi pals if made public.

IT appears that would-be pop star Paul "Rich Daddy" Burnley, of No Remorse, has his ego continually inflated when his 'friends' refer to him as "Boss". Someone should tell him that this is a shortened version of "Boss-eyed". Some friends!

We hear that several people are looking for new jobs at the J.C. offices. According to "Fresco's Fare" in the Jewish Chronicle of September 1st, 1989:

"Even at the height of the National Front's brief emergence into the political open - culminating in the grotesque rally I attended in Trafalgar Square in the early 1960's - hearing its leader unleash his Nazi-style diatribe failed to invoke the singular feeling of vulnerability that swept over me in the park at that moment."

Whoops! It was actually a "Free Britain from Jewish Control" rally organized by British Nazi leader Colin Jordan and his friends. And besides, the National Front wasn't formed until 1967.

OUR ANSWER TO IRA VIOLENCE

ULSTER has just been sent another Secretary of State, but nothing has changed. Death and destruction, with its regular condemnation and hand-wringing is still with us. The future looks bleak for Ulster as we enter the twenty first year of the current 'Troubles'. Ulster's conflict is not a mere religious quarrel but the life or death struggle of our small nation to exist in the face of the IRA's vicious war of attrition.

The people of Ulster can expect no help from the British State. Those who blindly cling on to the 'union' with the Westminster State are in fact cuddling up to the very apparatus that is conspiring to shove them into the hands of Dublin! The National Front recognised this fact at the time of the signing of the notorious Hillsborough Pact in 1985. We immediately declared in favour of independence for Ulster. Others seemingly don't want to be disturbed from their complacency.

Now, the NF's Central Ulster Executive has sat down and drafted a discussion document on the way ahead for Ulster. The 'union' is dead! Ulster is being gradually integrated with the Irish Republic. We have faced up to that reality and have put forward some suggestions for a workable alternative to the present mess - a Third Way for Ulster.

The NF's document is called Alternative Ulster. It has been dedicated to the inspiring thoughts of the great Welsh patriotic author, Derrick Hearne.

The booklet introduces the Ulster National Front and goes on to examine the nature of the difference between the 'nation' and the 'state'. The nation consists of the individuals and communities that make up the people, along with their traditions and culture, whereas the state is nothing more than the machinery of government. Ulster is a nation. Britain is not a national entity, but consists of a family of nations!

OPTIONS

Various options for Ulster's future are examined - a 'United' Ireland, devolution, integration and independence. Naturally, the booklet favours independence as the only way to preseve and maintain our national identity.

The booklet does not favour the continuance of the present parliamentary capitalist system after gaining independence. Such 'independence' would not be worth having. The present parliamentary 'representation' system must be replaced by popular rule. Capitalism would be replaced by distributism. Today's passive consumers will become tomorrows active, participating producers.

The booklet advocates a new education system which will end the current education for exploitation. It rejects the 'comprehensive' theory and seeks to give children a sense of self-respect, relevance, belonging and certainty. Schools will be run by a congress of parents and teachers.

Other chapters examine law and order and the economic and security problems of independence in some detail.

The final chapter is a challenge to all Ulster patriots. It explains that the greatest danger to Ulster's future lies in the fact that its long suffering people have become the prisoners of traditional loyalties - even when such loyalty is rejected. We must begin again - this time redirecting our loyalty to the Ulster nation. For ordinary Ulsterfolk to win, they must fulfil certain preconditions. There must be:

 A widespread conviction that independence is the only solution.

 A positive approach to independence as new, inspiring and revolutionary.

 A recognition by each section of the community that they are citizens of Ulster - not representatives of other neighbouring states.

 A common determination to extirpate any force which attacks or seeks to undermine the freedom of Ulster.

 A willingness to make material sacrifices in order to achieve a new free Ulster Nation.

The National Front have an ideology and the vision to give the long suffering people of Ulster something to fight for, instead of asking them to fight the same old never-ending rearguard action to defend a lost cause.

Face up to the future! join with us today for a decent future.

END THE LONG WAR!

AUGUST 1969 saw the deployment of British troops on the streets of Ulster. Despite constant Provo lies, the soldiers were not brought to Londenderry and Belfast to 'bash Catholics'. In fact, Ulster's Catholics welcomed the army with open arms and cups of tea. Twenty bloody years later, the troops are still on the streets. During this time, thousands of innocent civilians and members of the security forces have been killed, maimed or wounded. So what is happening in Ulster?

The 'troubles' are not the inevitable result of a religious squabble that originated in 1690 between two sets of 'mad paddies'. Protestants do not all live in mansions. Catholics do not all live in abject squalor, with no jobs and in fear of the 'Orangies'. Nor are the IRA 'godfathers' responsible somehow for some gigantic crime wave. The real problem is one of imperialism.

Britain consists of several nations: England, Scotland, Cymru, Mannin and Kernow. In a similar way, the island of Ireland consists of two distinct nations: Ulster and Eire. History shows that the first inhabitants of Ulster were a pre-Celtic people called the Cruthin. History also shows that Ulster has, since the mists of time, been a nation in its own right.

Despite Ulster's legitimate claim to nationhood, Westminster rules it along colonial lines. A Secretary of State is appointed to oversee all aspects of life. The current dictator, Peter 'Babbling' Brooke is basically an English upper-class twit who doesn't even know what planet he's on. Before he was appointed to 'look after' Ulster, Brooke's claim to fame was as the man who masterminded the Tories' spectacular defeat in June's EEC elections!

The colonial status of Ulster provides one of the best cases for casting aside 'representative democracy' and replacing it with a system of popular participatory rule. 'Babbling' Brooke has never received a single vote in Ulster. He wasn't elected by - and is not answerable to - the ordinary people of Ulster. Yet he determines the day to day running of the country and only answers to the powers that be in Westminster and Dublin.

As well as being strangled by Westminster imperialism, Ulster also has to contend with Dublin's long-held imperialist desires. Indeed, Articles 2 and 3 of Eire's Constitution lay claim to the nation of Ulster.

Despite some minor disagreements, the British and Eire States share the same objective as the Provos - a 'united Ireland'. The only real argument between them is the way they achieve their ends. The Provos are a Marxist, imperialist and sectarian group who live off fear and are willing to get their hands dirty. Westminster and Leinster House are full of 'respectable' oppressors who want to sell Ulster out through constitutional means such as the Hillsborough Pact.

As imperialism is the sickness that afflicts Ulster, it follows that revolutionary nationalism can be its only cure. The long war can only be ended by the promotion of a Third Way - a course that goes beyond the sterile hatreds of republicanism and unionism. The creation of a non-sectarian, participatory, and independent Ulster will allow both communities to live in peace in this beautiful, but troubled land.

FALSE IDOLS & FALSE IDEALS

THE world seems to be moving in two directions at once. In Western Europe towards a Super-State, whilst in Eastern Europe national minorities - Albanians in Yugoslavia, Turks in Bulgaria, Hungarians in Rumania, and Estonians, Latvians, Uzbecks, Armenians and everbody else in the Soviet Union - demand national, racial and religious self-determination.

How ironic it is that the flame of freedom begins to flicker in the East after years of brutal, and obvious, repression, while in the West after decades of liberalism and 'freedom' the flame is spluttering and dying.

Like a pendulum, the nations of the East re-discover (if their peoples ever lost it) their national consciousness. We, weakened by a false belief in our own 'democracy' and 'freedom', lose ours.

That the struggle we face is probably greater than that faced by nationalists in the East is testimony to the success of "repression by consent" that is operated by our governments.

The point has not been missed by Communist governments in the East. They are now attempting the difficult transition from "government by force" to "repression by consent", as a way of shoring up the crumbling walls of their Empire. The Chinese Establishment will eventually fall into line when international finance cracks the whip, brushing up their image and becoming more 'democratic', once all resistance to the ruling regime has been brutally crushed or re-educated.

It is so very vital, indeed crucial, that the struggling peoples of the East do not look to our form of government as the miraculous solution to their struggle. Already we have seen the students in Tiananmen Square raise a replica of the Statue of Liberty. How symbolic and tragic. We and they must remember the fate of those who worship false idols and ideals.

THE FALL OF AN EVIL EMPIRE OR THE GLOBAL STING?

The ghost of an Evil Empire or deception, deceit, seduction and lies?

GLASNOST and PERESTROIKA - meaning "openness" and "restructuring" respectively - are two words that are in vogue with the Western capitalist media. They are intended to convey two complementary impressions. The first - and this is explicit - is that under Mikhail Gorbachev something significant, perhaps fundamental, has taken place within Soviet Marxism; the second - and this is largely implicit - is that the intention behind these words is to bring about the "free market economy" and "Western style democracy". Needless to say, both impressions are intended to be seen as good things.

For those used to the idea that the East is opposed to the West, that Communism is the antithesis of Capitalism, that Moscow is the home of the "Bad Guys" and Washington the home of the "Good Guys", every word, every facial expression is solemnly analyzed for its true significance in the media game show known as "East-West relations".

POLICE STATE

For those who know that Marxism is the logical consequence of grasping Capitalism, that the Bolshevik "Revolution" was financed by Wall Street bankers, and that this cosy Capitalist-Marxist nexus has been nurtured, albeit discreetly, ever since, the apparent changes in the Soviet Union herald something altogether different: the full and complete integration of the two Super Powers and their Empires. In other words, we are entering the phase that will seek to inaugurate a World Police State, combining the economic clout of the banks with the brutality of the Marxist secret police.

The naieve endure TV broadcasts and they believe. "Look at Gorbachev's attacks on corruption, incompetence and efficiency in the Party and in industry. He is burying Socialism by stages" - so say the broadcasters. "Look at the Western style elections held throughout the USSR. What a breakthrough for democracy" - so say the broadcasters. "Look at Gorbachev's reductions in infantry, tanks and chemical weapons. He is clearly intent on peace" - so say the broadcasters, overwhelmed with their own creation, "Gorbymania". Believe it if you will, but Third Positionists have no interest in such Mickey Mouse politics. We are interested in reality.

REALITY

In his book Perestroika, Gorbachev makes clear that the purpose of his "reforms" is not to eliminate Socialism, but to rid it of incompetence, bribery and apathy - all of which, conveniently, are to be located in the personnel inherited from the Brezhnev era and which justify the mass executions which are still going on!

He says in his book that there is "no disillusion over Socialism" nor is there "a crisis as regards its ideals or its ultimate aims." He continues that glasnost and perestroika are "underlying processes making for development in our socialist society." Thus Gorbachev's "economic reforms" are, in essence, the same as Thatcher's: the perfection of a cold, cruel and inhuman system where the masses are squeezed for the benefit of the Few.

Gorbachev has made it clear to the Soviet peoples that in return for glasnost, he wants greater effort and higher productivity, but the signs are that the people want their freedom and that they are not prepared to give anything in return for something long overdue.

In 1986, the Soviet Union had an economic growth rate of 4.1%, but it dropped to 2.3% in 1987 and the figures for 1988 are expected to be as bad. Marxist "economics" are a misery producing joke; it is as useless now as the moment it was conceived by intellectually retarded minds.

BIG BROTHER!

But what about the "free elections"? Well, the media hype about Boris Yeltsin tells us nothing because even if these elections were exactly the same as in the West, so what? The system that we endure is fraudulent, corrupt - it is nothing but a media based game designed to con the simple into believing that they run the country; as though an Elsie Smith of Cleveland could ever compete with the power and wealth of a Tiny Rowlands or a Robert Maxwell.

But Gorbachev is nothing if not consistent. He has made it clear - to those who want to know! - that "democratization" has its limits. And these limits must not challenge "a powerful central authority and a single party". To make the point clearer, a constitutional reform was effected in June 1988 which made Gorbachev, President of the Supreme Soviety for life. This means that he will control the Defence Council (ie the military); he will nominate the Prime Minister and all chief State officials; he will elaborate and control foreign policy; he will have the right to introduce whatever new laws he deems fit. In other words, this "democrat" is a dictator of the first order and a master of deceit - he is a superb example of Big Brother in action!

NO CHANGE

The astute reader will realize, by now, that all of Gorbachev's "peace initiatives" are also a myth. It is perfectly true that 500,000 troops have been withdrawn from the Iron Curtain, but it is conveniently forgotten that not too long before this announcement the Warsaw Pact had increased its manpower by ..... you've guessed it, 500,000! In other words, no change! He announced that he was also going to withdraw 10,000 tanks, yet Magistere-Information (March 15th 1988) revealed that 23,000 Soviet tanks are T54's and T55's which date back to 1947 - in other words, 10,000 tanks have been withdrawn that were due for the scrapyard anyway! As for his "visionary" proposals on chemical weapons, this amounted to scrapping just one eighth of the USSR's massive stocks!

SIMILARITY THE KEY

So why all the fuss when it is obvious that the Western Establishment knows the truth about Gorbachev? The answer is simple: to effect the complete integration of the two Super Powers, it is necessary to alter people's perceptions; it is necessary to get people to see the growing similarity between the two systems. In other words, people are being psychologically prepared to accept what would have been unthinkable a decade ago.

And just to show that nothing has changed since the Bolshevik seizure in 1917, the European banks gave the Soviet Union a 1989 New Year loan of FIVE BILLION DOLLARS to modernize the Soviet economy! The media are the kingpin in a Global Sting - you have been warned!

THE SHADOW OF THE SWASTIKA

A glance at the July 1989 edition of "British Nationalist" reveals that the leadership of the British National Party believes that the race issue is coming to the forefront of public consciousness once again. They are probably right. Certainly the threat of large-scale immigration from Hong Kong, the Rushdie affair and Muslim demands for state-funding for their own schools are making many people think again about multi-racism.

The BNP are seeking to use the public concern over such issues to build their miniscule grouplet. Their broadsheet even makes the absurd claim that: "it is now only the British National Party that stands for the repatriation policy recommended by Mr Powell."

It is timely, therefore, to ask what kind of people are these "saviours" of our nation. The answer in one sense is simple. They are not as they present themselves.

They call themselves "nationalists" and "patriots".

They are nothing of the sort - the BNP are Nazis.

They want to take away the hard won rights of ordinary people and set up a one party dictatorship. They want to foist a false "British" identity on the peoples of Wales, Scotland, Ulster etc. They measure the strength of a nation in terms of its military resources. Against all logic their followers are urged to surrender their powers of judgement to one man - "the leader".

They know that if they stated openly their vile Nazi views they would find little support, so instead they try to conceal their true nature, But sometimes the truth slips out. One member of the BNP wrote with mouth foaming adoration of the Nazi dictatorship to their journal Spearhead:

"....think of how wonderful it must have been to live under a system where one knows, and can see, that the inherent and latent energies of one's own people are being fully galvanised, the collective psyche of one's own race is raised to a piercing level of consciousness. To know and feel that your own people are moving forward, and that the hidden powers and strength of the nation are being released, is an uplifting sensation indeed.

If one experiences all these things, but the end is material destruction, then so what! One has still lived with a capital 'L'." - Spearhead (December 1988).

The "Leader" of the BNP writes in his book The Eleventh Hour (page 100) of Hitler's Mein Kampf:

"It was a revelation! Here described in the language, not of a professional author, but of a highly intelligent and observant man who clearly loved his country with a passion, was everything that I could recall seeing myself in the way of what was wrong with my own country. These I immediately thought, were not the words of a madman or psychopath but those of a seer and prophet."

An advert in the August 1982 edition of Spearhead magazine described Mein Kampf as a book which "radiates logic and sanity".

Long before anyone had thought of trying to disprove the Holocaust Tyndall joined a group called the National Socialist Movement. At that time he made the comment, "Mein Kampf is my bible."

Make no mistake, Mein Kampf is still Tyndall's bible. Let us make sure that the public is aware of that fact.

SOUND AS A POUND

Comrades,

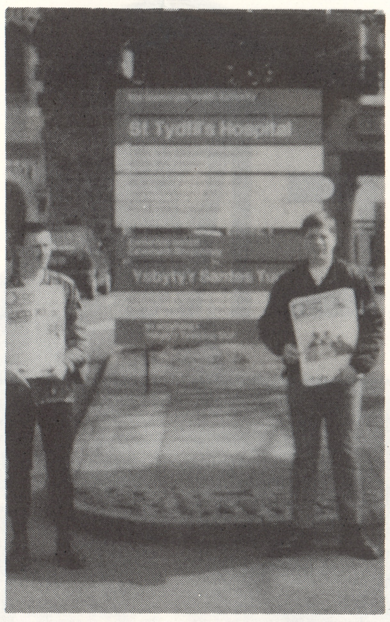
After months of hardwork pushing the £1 solidarity price of NF News with some success, we now find that it has been dropped to just 50p; an extra 15p per paper instead of 65p.

Why has the Movement lowered its sights? Asking people to pay a pound for the most informative and only truly revolutionary paper in the British Isles is not embarrasing!

I can only conclude that the editors of NF News have listened to the complaints of one or two people and taken that as representing the mood of the Movement.

Put the solidarity price back up and help Movement activists to make some money for their units.

Yours for National Revolution,
C.T., Newcastle.



EDITORIAL COMMENT

The solidarity price was lowered in order to boost Nationalism Today sales, and to encourage militants to sell NT on the streets and on door to door rounds. People find it far easier to pay a round figure like £2 for both publications than fumble around for, or wait for our sellers to find, the right change.

If militants find that they can sell NFN for a £1 solidarity price, then they should obviously do so - providing it does not affect NT sales.

ONE WORLD STATE WILL LEAD TO A PLANETARY SYSTEM

Dear NFN,

With the awe-inspiring pictures recently beamed back to earth taken from the planet Neptune by the Voyager II craft, we are once again reminded of the massive and unrivalled contribution to civilization from Europeans. The whole project was an astronomical and technological feat second to none which should instill pride in all patriots who share our common heritage.

Of course, feats of space exploration down the years have been attributed by the media to either the 'U.S.' or 'Soviet' governments or else to 'Mankind' and predictably never to European genius.

But it is interesting to wonder what the global manipulators who lurk behind the scenes think of it all. Their talent never was for creativity, but rather for marketing and subterfuge, and although they seek to enslave us all in a One World State through the use of secret societies, control of credit, enforced multi-racialism, syncretism and so on, they are not so foolish as to destroy the kind of inventive genius that pushed back the frontiers of the universe.

It is not too far fetched to imagine the press barons and business moguls, in their One World System, seeing this field as a personal plaything, allocating villages where the world's top scientists would live and work under their jurisdiction. We would thus see sharks like Arnold Hammer, the billionaire industrialist and our Czech mate, Robert - Jan Ludvik Hock - Maxwell, setting themselves up as Cosmic Mr-Fixits or lunar impresarios, pouring their ill gotten dollars into Hollywood lauching pads and luxury Challenger refits in order to travel in style and feed their incredible ego's.

But anyone who thinks that such characters should share a common destination with Voyager II can forget it. The planet Sirius has done nothing to deserve cultural repression and a fraudulent interest and debt system. And anyway, the merchants haven't finished exploiting this planet yet.

So in order to reach for the stars, nationalist earthlings must get their heads out of the clouds and then move heaven and earth to build a nationalist Europe, knocking the One Worlders off course.

Yours for Universal Nationalism
' G. W. London.

OUR RACE AGAINST TIME

Dear NFN,

Anyone living in London is aware every day of the increasing proportion of racial minorities in our midst. More Indians, more Nigerians, more Chinese and possibly most worrying of all, more people of mixed race. In many parts of London, White girls and Black men form fashionable partnerships, and the resulting children are usually classed as Black.

What the situation in London will be like in ten years time causes thinking people great unease. In some areas the proportion of Whites will dwindle further. We could get a situation like the USA: the capital city has a majority of blacks. No wonder that some think that the best idea is to move into the country.

The NF has the correct policy for dealing with this situation: to encourage some form of repatriation. That is why I, and thousands like me, joined the Movement in the first place.

Regrettably, the truth is that the NF is unlikely to come within a mile of real power in the next few years.

The policies of the Labour and SLD parties on immigration are appalling. The policies of the Conservatives are weak. Of all the politicians, only some Conservatives show any concern about immigration. M.P.'s like Terry Dicks, John Townend and Timothy Janman do at least put the point of view of the man in the street on the race issue.

On many issues the NF and the Conservatives are bitterly divided. However, Conservatives I know are just as concerned as many of our members about the immigration issue.

This is the major issue of our time: the preservation of our country as a recognizable European country. Would it not make sense for the NF to investigate whether some umbrella organization on the race question could be set up, to provide a forum where like minded people of different political parties could co-operate, and discuss possible courses of action to save the nation?

In opposition, the Movement is powerless, ineffective and viewed with contempt by the liberal establishment. Would it not make sense to recognise our limitations, and try to use the political system in this counry to try to achieve our most distinctive policy?

I believe that to achieve anything worthwhile, access to the media is essential. Usually our movement cannot get this access. A more broadly based grouping might get some access.

The history of revolutionary organizations in this country is not very encouraging. Change comes when the major parties judge that it ought to come. Any effective grouping needs friends in high places, or at least we ought to be able to distinguish those people in high places who are reasonably friendly, from those who will always be hostile.

Yours Faithfully,
C.S., S.W. London.

EDITORIAL REPLY

We understand, and share, the deep concern that has been expressed by C.S. In reply to his main point:

Such umbrella groups have existed for a number of years and have proven to be ineffectual talking shops and social clubs. The NF has been working on establishing solid links in this sphere as regular readers should know. We have built very good relations with a number of Black and Asian separatist groups which will bear real fruit in times to come. If individual Tories, or anyone else, really share this concern, then they will ally themselves with us on this issue, because we are the only people making the running in the White community and looking seriously for solutions.

A LOAD OF SCRAP

Dear NF News,

Regarding the letter in issue 120 about the silver planet somewhere out in the universe.

I work in a scrapyard in London, and want to know what the planet is made from as I'd like to melt it down and flog it.

Mark, South London.

"FOR WALES"

High up in the meirionydd mountains, was the valley of the Holly Tree,
where the Capel Celyn villagers, considered themselves as free.
But English oppression was rising, and Welsh culture was on the wane,
the Tryweryn Valley was flooded, and things were never the same.

In the autumn of '65,
the F.W.A. were conceived,
hundreds of militant Welshmen, who were tired of being deceived.
The methods of the Plaid were rejected,
they were unable to put words into effect,
while the greedy Westminster barons, had Wales by the scruff of the neck.

'Twas Cayo Evans who rekindled the spirit, and a feeling of pride came back,
to those who would raise the red dragon,
in the place of the Union Jack.
Now as the tension mounted,
and the pleas of the Welsh were ignored,
they decided on direct action,
their bombing campaigns were deplored.

Meanwhile in the town of Caernarfon, a ceremony was being prepared,
and Charles the son of an English Queen,
a Prince was there declared.
As black clouds began to gather,
at Cilmeri where Llewelyn died,
a heresy found a beginning,
a thorn in a nation's side.

On that very same day in question,
in the summer of '69,
a court dock was filled with men,
all seated in a line.
There were five noble patriots,
before the British State,
for struggling to defend their land,
they were to meet their fate.

The public gallery was crowded,
as nationalists came to see,
those committed fighters of freedom,
who had fought for liberty.
So today lift your head to the sky,
and cast your eyes to the roof,
where the white eagle of Snowdon, is perched as a symbol of truth.

FE GODWN NI ETO!
T.S., Crowborough, Sussex.

SECOND HOMES: THE BURNING QUESTION

THE NATIONAL FRONT is under heavy media attack for our refusal to condemn Meibion Glyndwr (Sons of Glyndwr) - the mysterious direct action group who have claimed responsibility for dozens of arson attacks against second homes in rural Wales.

We do not support the violent and secretive tactics used by Meibion Glyndwr. We have no links with them whatsoever. But neither are we willing to join in the unthinking Establishment chorus of condemnation of patriots driven to desperate measures to defend their nation. The real blame lies elsewhere - and we are quite prepared to say exactly where:

The second homes issue has been a burning grievance in Wales for many years now. With a pathetically low average income of £4,000 per year, local people are unable to compete in the property market with wealthy outsiders - mainly from the big English cities.

In many rural areas in the heart of Welsh-speaking Wales, up to 25% of the housing stock is tied up as holiday homes. This means that young people particularly have no chance of finding a home in their own nation, and so have to move away.

This leads to the closure of schools and recreation facilities. And because the houses are occupied for only a few weeks in each year, shops and public transport services close down through lack of regular use.

This in turn makes it harder for local people to find work and retain interest in the area, so even more move away. As a result, the Welsh identity is being destroyed.

But although this problem has become most prominent in Cymru due to the actions of Meibion Glyndwr, and in previous decades the M.A.C. and the Free Wales Army, it is by no means confined to Wales. In Kernow (Cornwall) there is also a holiday home arson campaign, and other fierce resistance to foreign invasion led mainly by the direct action group, Angof. In Mannin (Isle of Man) too, there have been a growing number of similar attacks and the revival of Fo Halloo - meaning "underground". And even in rural, and the poorer regions of England resistance to the yuppie invasion has become manifest, taking the form of attacking parked cars and other property belonging to the unwelcome newcomers.

So who is to blame?

You can't really blame people who want to get away from the tense, violent and commercialised rat-race of England's multi-racial cities. Brought up without any sense of pride in their own culture and heritage, it is hardly surprising that they do not even see what harm their selfish pleasure does to another nation or age-old community.

Nor can you blame the farmers and other inhabitants of a countryside hit by EEC farming policies and indebtedness to the banks for selling "surplus" houses for the highest prices they can get.

So exactly who is to blame for the crisis which has driven patriots to raise once more the standards of their last great "rebel" leaders and their communities?

WESTMINSTER RULE

Rule from remote, money-grubbing London has hit Wales, Cornwall and the Isle of Man even worse than the outlying regions of England, as badly as Scotland, and almost as badly as Ulster.

Our City masters, State bureaucrats, media manipulators and their party political puppets regard the small farm and village life which is still the norm in rural communities with contempt and total incomprehension.

The rootless and cosmopolitan intelligensia who cling like leeches to the cancerous growths of London and New York have an instinctive loathing for any people who are striving to cling to their ancient culture and minority language. For nations which resist the "values" and chatterings of Hollywood are also likely to impede the development of the highly profitable global "culture" of Coca-cola and blue jeans.

So while the System's puppets at Westminster have made a few "safety valve" concessions such as, for instance, more TV time in Welsh, the overall aim and effect of their rule in Wales is to destroy the last vestiges of national pride, self-sufficiency and identity.

Such things provide banners around which people can rally to defy the creeping power of the centralized state, so such things are anathema to Westminster.

LOCAL COUNCILS

It would be reasonable to expect local councils to be more responsive to the needs of people in their own areas, but this is rarely the case. They are too dominated by petty party political point-scoring and by career-minded little bureaucrats who don't want to rock the boat.

These people have the power to create new small scale housing schemes open to local people only, and at much more realistic prices. Such schemes have been running successfully in a number of villages in English counties such as Wiltshire and Dorset, where the locals have been priced out of the housing market by City yuppies.

If the same thing was done in every rural village and traditional community, the resentment caused by the holiday homes issue would be greatly defused. Every council could do this if the will was there.

But unless the electors make it clear that councillors will not be re-elected unless they take action, laziness and corruption (because building land destined for the open market fetches a higher price) will ensure that nothing is done.

POLITICAL SAFETY VALVES

Political safety-valve "radicals" such as the so-called "Welsh nationalist" party, Plaid Cymru, must bear a greater share of the blame than anyone. Although Plaid's founding principle was that its members should never take up seats at Westminster, the neo-Marxist sellouts who run the party today are all too happy to pick up their inflated salaries and to look important on the opposition bench in the House of Commons.

This act alone has done more than any other to legitimise Westminster rule in the eyes of an ever-growing number of people, and so to prevent an effective national feeling and opposition developing.

Plaid's MP's and councillors have failed to get local councils to provide housing projects as already discussed. And by insisting that everything should be left to them, to the "experts", Plaid have deterred ordinary people from taking part in the mass community action which is needed to defend community spirit, interest and identity today.

Rather than taking effective action on the second homes issue, Plaid have instead attacked others - such as Meibion Glyndwr and the Ffrynt Cenedlaethol Cymru Wales NF.

COMMEMORATIVE RALLY CYMRU

[illegible] Cymru Wales NF recently received a standardized letter calling upon all Welsh patriots to assemble in Caernarfon on 1st July 1989 to commemorate the sentencing of six members of the Free Wales Army and the death of two members of Mudiad Amddiffyn Cymru. The gathering in Caernarfon is to honour the memory of these martyrs and to show that the Welsh will to nationhood is not dead. Whilst we do not agree with their practice of armed struggle we honour their memory as men who were prepared to do something and die if necessary, rather than let their nation die.

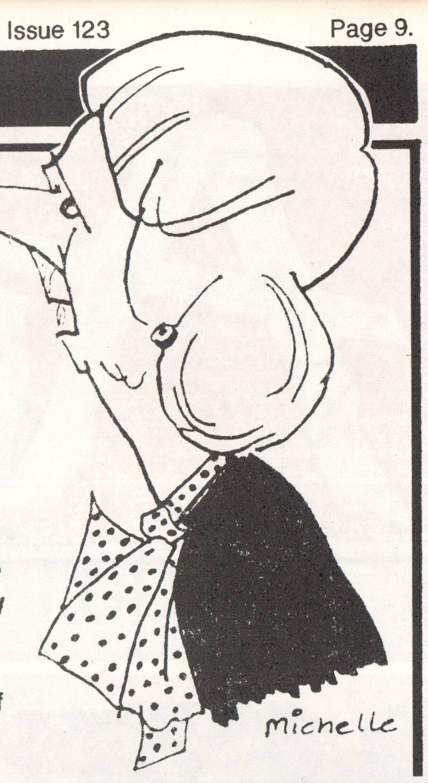
THE APPALLING 'THATCH YEARS'



This year marks the tenth anniversary of the 'Tory Reich' and Thatcher's tyrannical rule over the nations of the British Isles. Here, in true Tory press traditions, are twenty things you may not know about the 'Thatch years'.

1) From 1979-86 the income of the top 10% of households in Britain rose by 31%, while real incomes of the poorest 40% of households declined by an average of 25%.

2) Thatcher's governments' investment in schools, hospitals, roads, houses and other infrastructures have fallen, in real terms, by 50% since the Labour government of the late seventies (which was pitiful to begin with).

3) The average British family now has debts of £1,700 (excluding mortgages).

4) 28% of the population live in poverty or on the breadline; an increase of 55% since 1979.

5) The Thatch years have seen the creation of the 'North-South divide'. Average weekly pay in the North is £59 less than in the South East.

6) While Thatcher brought in a Yank, Ian McGregor, to decimate the British steel industry and put thousands of skilled men on the dole, her government donated £30 million to the Mexican steel industry to "help make it more competitive."

7) Under Thatcher the top 2% of the population own more property and land than the bottom 75%.

8) 'Green' Thatcher? Half of Britain's beaches are polluted by Salmonella, polio virus and raw sewage. 11 million people in Britain are drinking water below the recommended health standards.

9) Ten years of Thatcher have seen Britain's share of world trade fall faster than any other industrial nation.

10) Under Thatcher's 'moral crusade', abortions, one parent families, AIDS, and drug abuse are at all time highs.

11) Thatcher has restricted the fundamental right of trial by jury and wants the right to remain silent removed when in police custody.

12) The Thatcher government brought in the 'Security Services Bill' which gives the Home Secretary absolute discretion to authorise MI5's activities and makes no provisions for parliamentary intervention. MI5 has been given the task of monitoring the National Front.

13) Thatcher has taken away workers' rights to be members of trade unions. Workers at GCHQ had a choice of 'leave your union or you're sacked'.

14) 'The Employment Act' introduced by the Tories has stopped secondary picketting, removed the protection from unfair dismissal and took away maternity rights.

15) In 1979 Thatcher promised to curb immigration into Britain; an average of 50,000 legal immigrants have entered Britain every year since Thatcher came to power. That's not including the untold illegal immigrants that have entered Britain over the past ten years. If you count the offspring of the 'legals' that have arrived under Thatch, you could be talking upwards of a million non-British people that have now settled here under the person who 'sympathised with the fears of many people that this country was going to be swamped by non-Europeans'.

16) The Thatcher government is now drawing up secret plans for the arrival of up to 3 million Chinese immigrants from Hong Kong. Top Tories in league with the Big Bosses are rubbing their hands with glee at the thought of all that cheap labour.

17) Thatcher has stated that she believes "there is no such thing as society; only the individual". This is certainly reflected in Tory 'I'm all right Jack' policies such as health care, education and housing.

18) Thatcher recently brought about a 'State ban' on broadcast interviews with Sinn Fein, the IRA and similar unionist groups in Northern Ireland. The National Front - a perfectly legal Movement - has been under an 'unofficial' State broadcasting ban since Thatcher took power.

19) Thatcher is introducing 'Poll Tax' instead of the rating system. This tax is perhaps the most despicable piece of legislation that the Tories have brought about (if that's possible!) Top Tories believe that bringing in Poll Tax will once and for all allow the State to monitor the movement of every citizen in Britain. They are hoping that thousands of less well off people will not register themselves on the electoral roll, in a vain attempt to evade Poll Tax, thereby forsaking their right to vote; so reducing opposition support.

20) A recent survey showed a strong correlation between Conservative electoral victories and increases in the suicide rate! 'Nuff said.

BECOME A FRIEND OF THE MOVEMENT

POLICE

IT'S THE LEAST YOU CAN DO!

THE destruction of families and communities; unemployment; slave labour and debt are what most people have suffered thanks to the 'Thatch years'. And in order to keep her insane nightmare running the police are being turned into a paramilitary force. This is the reality of Thatcher's Reich so join our struggle by becoming a Friend of the Movement, today!

To become a member of this association it costs a mere £15 per year - in other words we are asking you to give less than 29 pence a week to help save our country. Surely it's the least you can do!

In return you will receive a FOM card, we will keep you updated with important developments and achievements in our work and you will gain the satisfaction of knowing that you are playing an important part in our struggle. Quite apart from allowing us to carry on with, and expand, our work, Friends of the Movement play the important role of acting as the eyes and ears of the Movement in the population.

I would like to become a Friend of the Movement and enclose a cheque/postal order for £15 in favour of Friends of the Movement.

YTS: YOUTH TERMINATION SCHEME!

The deaths of young workers on the Tories' 'slave labour' Youth Training Scheme are becoming so regular and routine that the Department of Employment has drafted a standard pro forma sympathy letter for parents.

This 'standard letter' leaves a space for the dead trainee's name, and ends "with deepest sympathy". Four young workers died on the scheme between July and September in 1988, and in the year 1987, 21 YTS trainees were killed at 'work'.

Recently the Health and Safety Executive condemned magistrates for imposing ridiculously low fines on employers found guilty of breaking safety regulations. One YTS worker suffered eye and leg injuries when a hand held grinder broke the first time he used it; his employers received a fine of just £150.

Another 19-year old lost all the fingers on one hand while using an unguarded power press; for this offence the company was fined £2,000 but the company had already been convicted twice before for the same offence and each time had only received a £50 fine.

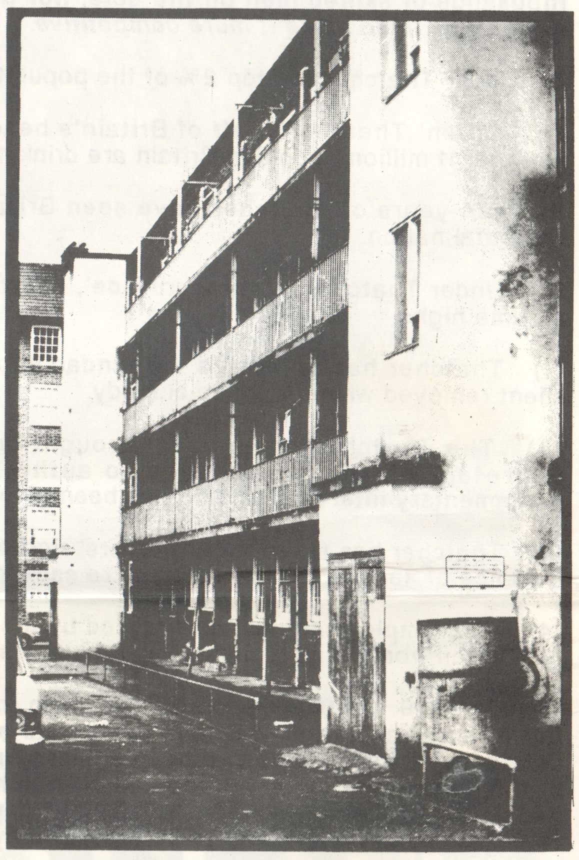
The Chairman of the House of Commons employment committee recently pointed out: "For many companies the £2,000 magistrates fine is just a flea bite. Fines of £25 are completely meaningless and have no deterent effect."

The Health and Safety executive has also warned that in agricultural areas, where accidents with farm machinery are common, "some magistrates benches, composed largely of wealthy landowners and farmers, have proved especially reluctant to penalise offenders severely."

The 'uncaring' manner in which the Tories treat the deaths of young people on their 'slave labour' schemes shows the true nature of Capitalism. Profit for the Bosses must be made at any cost, even if that cost is lives.

AUTONOMY!

LET'S TAKE OUR ESTATES BACK



ALL OVER the country people have had enough of council mis-management of our communities.

We are supposed to have a voice in the running of our estates through tenants' and residents' associations, and community groups. But in practise we have no say when our wishes go against those of local or national 'representative' government.

Councils have the "right" to recognise such groups. What this means is that they DO NOT have to recognise the existance of any group that protests too effectively in the defence of the community.

In reality, it means that if residents' and tenants' groups wish to exist then they have to tow the council line and hope for the odd 'soft-soap' from their representatives.

And in a growing number of areas councils are even 'fixing' such groups by making sure that their own party political stooges control the management committee. These political puppets will then seek to purge 'dissident elements', thus rendering the group totally ineffective.

And meanwhile, the state of our communities continues to get worse, not improve.

But tenants and residents are beginning to fight back and take the affairs of their communities back where they belong - in the hands of the residents themselves.

Independent tenants' groups are springing up all over the place in opposition to the council-controlled organizations. These groups are run by ordinary people, cater for the wishes of ordinary people and involve the entire community.
